

To Perform the Phytala

Feraferia & R.J. Stanewick, 1969

(So named after Phytalus, the good grover. Demeter gave him the fig tree in appreciation of his hospitality.)

Upward from roots a growing tip that forms a stem, a trunk - out of two a unique One, microcosm. Lift hands, bringing them together palm toward palm, fingertips touching and pointing upward. Pause with hands at heart level (diagram, 1)...

Stem grows tall toward the stars - yearning, aspiration, in receptive aspect toward the Great Lady of Stars, macrocosm - pistil. Keeping hands together, stretch them high overhead (2). Pause...

Blessing from stars, from great One into unique One. Without separating hands, return them to heart level (1). Pause...

Yearning, aspiration, in purposive aspect toward the great One - loving outreach toward all in premonition of reunion with Great Nature - stamens, horizon, wings, branches. separate hands, extending each one sideways and upwards (3)...

Systole. Hands back together at heart level (1). Pause...

Sol, Yang - fruit. Separate hands and with fingertips trace in air the outline of the Sun, or a fruit, circling middle of trunk (each hand describing half a circle) and ending with fingertips touching in horizontal position just below navel (4). Pause...

Luna, Yin - foliage. Hands remain in same position relative to each other but lower to arms' length to position just in front of genital (5). Pause...

Paradisal Joy - hieratic posture of Greeting the Goddess. Hands swing gracefully outwards, sideways, and upwards to level of shoulders (6) - the Crescent Moon. Pause...muse... The Kore Incantation may be intoned while holding this position.

The song below may be sung or chanted in accompaniment of the gesture. Syllables are matched with gestures as shown in the right margin.

ma-gic Mai-den, ma-gic mai ————— den

The image shows a handwritten musical score on a single staff. The notation is in a simple, hand-drawn style. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of several notes, some with stems pointing up and some with stems pointing down. There are two 'y' characters written below the staff, likely indicating specific rhythmic values or breath marks. The lyrics 'ma-gic Mai-den, ma-gic mai ————— den' are written below the notes. Above the staff, the words '.....~~EVOE~~ ~~KORE~~ ~~EVOE~~ ~~KOUROS~~ A' are written in a stylized, hand-drawn font, with the first four words crossed out with horizontal lines.
